

Volunteer for Josh Riley in NY-19 and Help Take Back the House

By Miriam Rabban

Democrat Josh Riley is running for Congress in a critical swing district, NY-19, which covers parts of the Hudson Valley including Columbia County, located south of Albany. Republican Marc Molinaro won the Congressional seat in 2022 by only 1.6% of the total vote, 4,495 votes. NY-19 is purple but winnable if we put in the work.

Read on to learn about Josh and how you can help win back this district for Democrats through postcarding, phonebanking, canvassing and donating to the Josh Riley for Congress campaign. His website is joshrileyforcongress.com.

Josh has a compelling personal story. When he was growing up in Endicott, NY, he saw family, friends and neighbors lose their jobs as local factories closed down. He is a strong advocate for good jobs and unions. He also has excellent positions on protecting the environment, reproductive rights, and our democracy. He will safeguard Social Security and Medicare. For more information about his positions and his impressive background, go to his website, listed above.

Here are some ways that you can help take back the House:

Postcarding: Three Parks Board member Miriam Rabban has postcards and addresses of people who live in NY-19, who are not registered to vote, and who are considered likely to vote Democratic. If you wish to get postcards and addresses from Miriam, contact her at merabban@gmail.com

Phonebanking: The next steps for phonebanking are being developed by the Josh Riley campaign. To express interest in phonebanking, send an e-mail to merabban@gmail.com.

Canvassing: Miriam will be doing canvassing and can arrange for Three Parks members to participate in the effort. She could provide an opportunity to discuss the experience of Three Parks members and could arrange for a shared meal. People could consider a weekend/mini-vacation in the lovely Hudson Valley, and Miriam would be glad to provide tips on fun things to do and places to stay.

Donations: The Riley campaign is not taking any corporate PAC money and relies on donations from people who care about winning back this critical district for Democrats. NY-19 is a large district that covers several media markets and needs funds to counter Republican spending in this tough battle. You can donate at the website listed above.
